

The following statement introduces the steps that have been taken in relation to our responsibilities under section 54, part 6 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (MSA) (United Kingdom Public General Act).

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labor and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

We in KFK d.o.o. have a zero-tolerance approach to Modern Slavery. We are committed to ensuring there is transparency in our own business and in our approach to tackling modern slavery throughout our supply chains, consistent with our disclosure obligations under the Modern Slavery Act 2015. We expect the same high standards from all of our suppliers and other business partners, and as part of our contracting processes, we may include specific prohibitions against the use of forced, compulsory or trafficked labor, or anyone held in slavery or servitude, whether adults or children, and we expect that our suppliers will hold their own suppliers to the same high standards.

As a Croatian company, KFK's financial year ends on December 31, 2020, which is the period covered by this statement.

According to the Modern Slavery Act 2015, section 54, part 7, this statement is published on KFK's web site www.kfk.hr.
